
LETTER TO THE MANAGEMENT

January, 2017

Dear Sir/Madam:

I am writing to request a name change, as the name "Mrs. Claws" hasn't applied to me for some time now. And really, I don't care to be associated with that food-aggressive bully that I spent some time with when I arrived at BCR. The memories are too painful.

After we were divorced, all my Explore fans took to calling me Miss Claws or Miss C or Ms. C for short. As you can imagine, this can prove to be a little confusing.

Therefore, I am requesting a name change to something much more simple: Missy. This pretty much combines all my names, and should make it much easier.

Now that I have a new home, and a new playmate, I think I need a new name, too. A fresh start, so to speak. And this will also put a stop to the embarrassing question that will inevitably pop up: "Where is MR. Claws?" I can only imagine how that will affect my reputation; you know society does not take well to a married woman living with a much younger man.

Imagine how cute the sign for "Missy and Biscuit" or "Missy and Nabisco" will be. Max and Mary Anne won't have nothin' on us – we are going to be the new bobcat power couple at BCR. People will come from all over the world just to see us! Of course, I have to put Biscuit in his place every once in a while, but he seems to be an okay guy and someone I think I might have fun with eventually.

Please take my request under consideration. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Missy Bobcat
(formerly Mrs. Claws)
