
LETTER TO THE MANAGEMENT

January 20, 2017

Dear Sir/Madam:

You are probably wondering why I haven't been eating. Well, I am writing to officially notify you that I am on a hunger strike to protest the recent actions of my favorite keeper, Afton. Amanda said in her letter to you that there would be trouble when you brought in all those new tigers, and as much as I hate to admit it - she was right.

I have been forgotten now that those tigers have arrived. Afton no longer jogs with me in the morning or plays peek-a-boo. She doesn't drive the golf cart for me to chase. Instead, all her attention has been focused on Seth in the Vacation Rotation. Make no mistake; I know his game plan. He is acting all sweet and cuddly and putting on a good show for the visitors and staff with his chuffing and rolling around on his back and his antics in the pond. He thinks it's going to get him extra attention and it's working. To add insult to injury, Afton even posted a video on the web of their latest stroll around the VR!

Well, Seth and the other new tigers are going to have to learn the order of things around here. I am the #1 tiger, as evidenced by the fact that I am featured on the Tiger Lake camera on Explore. You should know that my fan base is HUGE, and they are planning protests. I understand they are contacting the media and insisting that I be given equal time on the web and on network TV. It will not happen today because of the inauguration (there can really only be one reality star on TV at a time), but it WILL happen!

The hunger strike continues...

Sincerely,

TJ Tiger

P.S. Please bring back the singing tiger next door. First I couldn't sleep because of the singing, now I can't sleep without it!
