
LETTER TO ... THE CATS

April 3, 2017

My most esteemed Felidae,

I wish you all a good morning.

I am writing to let you know that I will be arriving at your esteemed dwelling place in a little over a month. While there, I intend to meet with each and every one of you personally.

I will, of course, have my notebook with me so that I can write down any and all concerns you may have.

Unfortunately, I will be unable to fill Her Royal Highness Nikita's request to bring the Lord Albert Collection of fine bone china ("Old Country Roses" pattern) to her, as it is still on order from England.

Lord Cameron, King of the Tampageti, I will be sure to honor your request to speak to King Joseph regarding the blindfold you asked him to wear when you and Princess Bu are on vacation.

If he still refuses to comply, I will look into your recent request to purchase a water cannon that you can activate by remote control while you are in the Vacation Rotation as it appears that no one on staff is brave enough to anger The King. (BAM!)

I have received a letter from the turtles and the Relentless requesting my services; however, I told them that I am Secretary to the Cats, and as they do not fall into that category I will try to find them different representation.

Looking forward to meeting all of you in May, I remain

Lori D.
Secretary to the Cats
