
LETTER TO THE MANAGEMENT

June 9, 2017

Dear Sir/Madam:

We believe that we have a serious problem at our sanctuary. It appears we have a cat burglar who stalks the Kitten Cabana. First we have kittens, then they disappear. Then a new batch of kittens appears and disappears. At one point we had over 30 kittens; next thing you know, they are all gone. Apparently she is quite well known for doing this at the local Tampa Humane Society, also.

This has been happening on a regular basis for quite some time now, and we are starting to get worried that she will no longer be happy with kittens and will start taking us larger cats. Nova the Destroyer has graciously offered to reside in the Kitten Cabana temporarily to catch this perpetrator. Nova is more than able to defend herself against any burglar, and is very good at hiding. We think this is a good idea, so please arrange to have her transferred there as soon as possible.

This cat burglar is so bold that she has actually walked up to the Explore.org camera in the Kitten Cabana and boasted about taking the kittens away "to find a good home!" We suspect it was HER home and suggest someone go over there to check. And take lots of food and litter.

She does not seem to favor one color of kitten over another; as long as they are small and furry, she seems quite happy to capture them and take them away.

Nova is packed and ready for the move into the Kitten Cabana.

Sincerely,

Moses and Bailey Bobcats
(Sent via Lori D., Secretary to the Cats)
