
LETTER TO THE MANAGEMENT

June 30, 2017

Dear Sir/Madam:

On Wednesday, June 28, I filed a Complaint against a cam op named Snick for Defamation of Character. The camera operator had the nerve to call me “wide” – not once, mind you, but FOUR times.

Because I believe everyone deserves a second chance, I offered to drop the lawsuit providing a daily delivery of chicken was made to my enclosure for the next two weeks.

To date no chicken has arrived.

This publication of these false statements has taken a toll on my mental and physical health. I now suffer from severe insomnia and depression as a result of this incident. I therefore seek punitive and compensatory damages and whatever else the court sees just and fit to award.

However, I will drop the lawsuit upon daily delivery of chicken for the next two weeks.

Signed,

Nikita, Her Royal Lioness
(Sent via Lori D., Secretary to the Cats)
