
LETTER TO THE MANAGEMENT

July 27, 2017

Dear Sir/Madam:

What is this I hear about the new bobcat eating chicken? This is TOTALLY UNACCEPTABLE. Everyone should know by now that I get first dibs on any chicken. Who approved this? I demand to speak to the chef immediately to rectify this situation.

Giving a bobcat chicken indeed. I will simply not stand for this.

And take note, after my recent illness I need to build up my strength so I should be given EXTRA chicken. The bobcat can eat bobcat chow or whatever it is they eat - but not my chicken!

Harumph!!!!

Angrily yours,

Nikita HRL
(Sent via Lori D., Secretary to the Cats)

Note from the Secretary: I am not going to be the one to tell HRL that she misunderstood. I am not that brave!
