RE: Eclipse

NOW HEAR THIS!

All male cats, head for your dens and do NOT come out until tomorrow!

Everybody is making a big deal out of this "e-clips" thing. I don't know for sure what it is, but I can tell you this. The last time I heard anything about something being "clipped" I was taken to the hospital and came back singing soprano!

And then to make matters worse, pictures were posted on the internet of my male parts lying on a pink towel. A PINK TOWEL!!!

Run, men, run and hide. DO NOT come out until tomorrow, no matter what!

Save yourselves!!!
