

FROM THE LAW FIRM OF CATZ, KATS, MOREKATZ AND A RAT

September 1, 2016

Dear Sir/Madam:

Our client, Joseph Lion, has contacted us regarding the filing of a lawsuit for slander and harassment. It seems that there have been some disparaging remarks made (and pictures posted) concerning my client. A small sampling of these remarks follows:

- ◆ Joseph moves on Joseph's time
- ◆ We can't trust Joseph to go on vacation and return on schedule
- ◆ Joseph needs an emotional support animal
- ◆ Joseph is an expert at ignoring keepers when they want him to come take his meds
- ◆ Joseph is a stinker
- ◆ Joseph frequently ends up on the "Do A Recheck For Poop" list

He has been called:

- ◆ Grumpy Joe
- ◆ Grouchy
- ◆ Slow-Mo Joe
- ◆ The Original Grumpy Cat
- ◆ Grumpy Gus

It has also come to our attention that bets have been made on how long it will take my client to go through the tunnel to/from the Vacation Rotation enclosure. As a further insult, his turn on vacation has once again been given to the stinky Texas Tigers – despite the fact that the last time he was on vacation he was forced to walk through water (WATER!) to exit the Vacation Rotation because of an excess amount of rain.

This is your only warning. These infractions must stop immediately, or we will be forced to take legal action on my client's behalf.

Please note: my client is willing to drop the lawsuit if you will agree to provide him with vanilla ice cream every Friday, and a camera in Zabu's enclosure (just to play with Cameron's head).

We look forward to your answer.

Sincerely,

Ginger Clawsome , CAL (Cat At Law)
