
LETTER TO THE MANAGEMENT

September 24, 2016

Dear Sir/Madam:

I have some complaints that need to be addressed immediately in regards to the Vacation Rotation.

1. First of all, I don't like being told when I have to go on vacation: I would like to be able to pick my own dates. And in case you haven't figured it out by now, I will walk through the tunnel when I am good and ready. I am the King of the Jungle after all. Okay, yes, sometimes I like to stop and lay down for a few minutes, but it is simply to enjoy the nature around me. That is no reason to make fun of me or try bribing me with the yellow donut. Can I help it if I appreciate seeing new and different things?

2. While me and Zabu are in the Vacation Rotation, you insist on letting that stinky tiger, Kali, into our space. I don't like that. I don't like it at all. That is our house, not anybody else's. And it stresses Bu out when we get back from vacation, because she has to run around peeing on everything to make it ours again. And I don't like it when my Bu is stressed.

3. And what in the world ever possessed you to put the Vacation Rotation across from those stinky Texas Tigers and – worst of all – Joseph? Honestly, I have to spend half my vacation just telling those guys to quit staring at Zabu. I know she is beautiful, but she is MY girlfriend and they just can't seem to keep their eyes in their heads when we are there. I get tired of them just sitting there and watching her day in and day out. Please get them some new toys or something to distract them or get them women of their own.

4. Concerning yesterday, I am very upset that everyone tried to steal my turtle from me. I was just playing with it; I wasn't gonna eat it. Was it really necessary to have four people over there calling me and bribing me with chicken? After all, I let it go and it went back into the pond. So what's the big deal?

And then shaming me by posting a video of it on the Updates page. Really?! Anyway, that turtle was asking for it because it was outside the fence line taunting Bu the other day. I was just defending her honor.

Yeah, that's my story and I'm sticking with it!

Please see that these complaints are addressed immediately. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Cameron Lion
