

FROM THE LAW FIRM OF CATZ, KATS, MOREKATZ AND A RAT

October 6, 2017

Dear Sir/Madam

We have been contacted by certain of our clients living in the gated community at Big Cat Rescue regarding a nationwide TV appearance that occurred last night on NFL Thursday Night Football.

Gabrielle Tigress, Joseph Lion, Cameron Lion, and Sundari Leopard demand to be compensated for their appearance on last night's NFL football broadcast. Zabu Tigress is not interested in pursuing this matter at this time.

The above-named felines are insisting on compensation since they were not asked to sign any kind of release regarding the use of the video in any kind of commercial venture.

They did not consent to or give the producer and its agents or assigns or anyone authorized by the producer, the unrestrained right to utilize their images for any purpose whatsoever in connection with advertising, publicity, public displays, or exhibitions.

FURTHER, we have also been contacted by Her Royal Lioness Nikita, who is furious that she was not included in the video and also demands compensation. As the reigning queen of Big Cat Rescue, this oversight was an unspeakable offense.

Therefore, we insist that restitution be made swiftly and immediately to the above-mentioned felines in the form of an abundance of turkey legs and chicken. We also demand that treats be given out three times a day.

We trust you will give this matter your immediate attention.

Sincerely,

Kat Mandoo, Partner
The Law Firm of Catz, Kats, Morekatz and a Rat