
LETTER TO THE MANAGEMENT

October 25, 2017

Dear Sir/Madam:

Please ignore any letters you may get from our neighbor, Good King Grump a/k/a Joseph Lion. He calls us unsophisticated, and then poses for Explore pictures like the one below. He's just got a chip on his shoulder because Amanda pays more attention to Zeus than him.

Anyway, back to the reason for this letter. We want to make it perfectly clear that we would be more than happy to be in the Vacation Rotation area for the Walkabout. You can count on us to be on our best behavior. As a matter of fact, Amanda's Midnight Crooners would be glad to provide background music at no cost.

However, consider this: if THREE tigers are adorable, imagine what a crowd SIX tigers would draw! We thought it would be a great idea if you allowed Kali, Keisha and Priya to join us in the VR. Not because we think they are cute and flirty or anything; just as an added attraction for the visitors, of course. And Amanda thought she might like to invite Andy and Seth – so EIGHT tigers! Just think of the ooh's and aah's from the crowd!

We think this is a stupendous idea. We would only ask for one thing: curtains on the big den for privacy so that we could, uh, get to know each other better.

Thank you for your consideration of our request.

Sincerely,

Arthur, Andre and Amanda Tiger
(Sent via Lori D., Secretary to the Cats)

PS – Unlike Grumpy Gus, we do not need vanilla ice cream or turkey legs to entice us through the tunnel ...

explore.org